Camp Mysore

The 28th April 1919.

My dear Mr. Mirza,

I beg to send the accompanying extracts from the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service regulations based on orders of the Govt. of India.

Under these orders I shall be considered as reverting to British service only when I join an appointment in British India at the end of my leave. The whole of my privilege leave allowance and the greater part of my furlough allowance during the entire period of my furlough are payable from Mysore funds.

In these circumstances, as the question of my reversion to British service does not immediately arise may not a communication be sent to the Residency in continuation of the one already sent stating that the question of extending or terminating

The 29th August 1921.

My dear Mr. Mirza,

Just a line to let you know that I arrived in Calcutta on inspection duty some weeks back and am at present inspecting the office of the Asst. Secy, Central Revenues. I shall be here for about six months. Is there any fresh development about the C & M Sta. surplus & subsidy questions?

The monsoon is on in these parts in right earnest and our roads are awfully muddy. The political situation is not very clear either, with the Dalhousie Institute meeting fiasco, the Munitions case muddle and the Moplah outbreak. I met a number of my prominent friends lately - the Hon'ble Sir Samshul Huda President Bengal Legislative Council, the Hon'ble P.C. Mitter Education Minister, the Hon'ble Sir Anant Mohanji, A.K.

Fazlul Haq, the most recent recruit in the moderate camp &c &c - They all seem to be thinking furiously!

With best wishes,

I am

Yours very sincerely

J.S. Chakravarti

My services in Mysore after the expiry of my leave will be further considered by His Highness Government and the Government of India addressed on the subject later on about three months before the expiry of my leave. Such a course, will, for various reasons be very agreeable and acceptable to me.

On my departure on leave Mr. M.N. Krishna Rao may officiate as Financial Secretary and Mr. Satyraj Chetty as Comptroller. After the final communication is made to the Govt of India as suggested above, permanent arrangements may be made.

Yours sincerely
J.S. Chakravarti
